Re:        *United States v. Sandeep Aggarwal, No. 13 Cr. 884 (CM)

Dear Judge McMahon:

The Government writes in response to the Court's October 12, 2017 endorsement of a letter from Clues Network, Inc. The Government has reviewed the letter and spoken with the defendant's attorney. The Government is not taking a position on the substance of the letter at this point. However, the Government has reminded the defendant's attorney, and asked him to convey to the defendant, that:

- (i) the Government's position on whether the defendant is entitled to acceptance of responsibility credit under the Sentencing Guidelines depends not only on the defendant's plea allocation, but also on his subsequent conduct prior to sentencing;
- (ii) the Government's obligations under the applicable plea agreement also depend on whether the defendant has fulfilled his obligations under that agreement through the time of sentencing; and
- (iii) the defendant is currently bailed with the Government's consent.

Respectfully submitted,

JOON H. KIM
Acting United States Attorney
